

One Year Later: The Wine Atlas Collective

Dear VINsider,

In July 2026, we announced the launch of the Wine Atlas Collective, which connects your membership at Tablas Creek to seven other family-owned, sustainably-minded wineries from around the country to bring you added benefits.

We're celebrating the one-year anniversary of the Collective by reminding you how to take advantage of its benefits.

What does this mean for you?

Your membership unlocks exclusive perks at all eight wineries in the Collective, including:

- ✓ Complimentary or discounted tastings
- ✓ Access to member-only wines
- ✓ Special hospitality when you visit
- ✓ The opportunity to purchase with member pricing online

Who are the wineries in the Collective?

The wineries are located throughout the United States, from Virginia to Texas, from New York to Oregon, and from Washington to California. It's your passport to explore the incredible diversity of American wine, with around 43 grape varieties represented. The list:

- Blenheim Vineyards – Virginia
- Brooks – Oregon
- Frog's Leap – Napa Valley
- L'Ecole N° 41 – Washington
- Red Tail Ridge – New York (Finger Lakes)
- Ridge Vineyards – Sonoma & Santa Cruz Mountains
- William Chris Vineyards – Texas Hill Country
- Tablas Creek Vineyard – Paso Robles ← that's us!

Meet the Wine Atlas Collective from the Comfort of Your Home

On April 15th, representatives from each of the wineries hosted a virtual tasting to talk attendees through their different histories, philosophies, and wines. That tasting was accompanied by virtual tasting kits available through Master the World.

Good news: There are still virtual kits available! Experience the full diversity of the collective for just $140 (ground shipping included) in this exclusive sampler. Then turn on the recorded broadcast to taste along with the winemakers.
