CÔTES DE TABLAS BLANC 2017

“Supple and elegant, this white is a graceful mix of spiced poached pear, nectarine and dried mango notes, with hints of spice and dried honeysuckle. Harmonious and wonderfully juicy on the fresh finish. Viognier, Grenache Blanc, Marsanne and Roussanne. Drink now.”

Tablas Creek is in the limestone hills of the Adelaida District of Chateau de Beaulieu. Robert Heas of the estate is dedicated to sustainably growing traditional French wine.

The Côte de Tablas is a blend reminiscent of Northern Rhône and features three grape varieties: Viognier, which is balanced by the minerality of Roussanne and Marsanne and the richness of Grenache Blanc.
