

WINE ENTHUSIAST MAGAZINE

91 Tablas Creek Vineyard 2003 Rosé (Paso Robles); $27. A great California rosé, this Provencal-like blush is totally fulfilling. It offers a complex array of flavors ranging from rosehip tea, raspberry and dried herbs to vanilla bean and cocoa. Dry, lush and creamy, this wine is one more proof that Tablas Creek is absolutely at the top of their game.

Steve Heimoff, Wine Enthusiast, February 2005