Tablas Creek Vineyard

1999 Blanc Paso Robles

“(14.1% alcohol; a blend of marsanne, viognier, roussanne, grenache blanc and rolle): Pungent aromas of spearmint, chlorophyll, honeydew and cinnamon. Juicy, pure and nicely delineated; spicy and still rather youthfully unevolved in the middle. Finishes firm and spicy, with sneaky length. Seems distinctly firmer but also brighter than the '98 version. 88.”
