Vermentino 2012

“Tablas Creek’s 2012 Vermentino is rich, layered and exceptionally beautiful. Melon, pear and white flowers notes are nicely balanced in a medium bodied white loaded with near-term appeal. The crispiness of Vermentino is present, but the 2012 has a little more depth and roundness than most vintages. This is a gorgeous wine from Tablas Creek.” July 2013
